

Chair Craft

By Sandra McTiernan

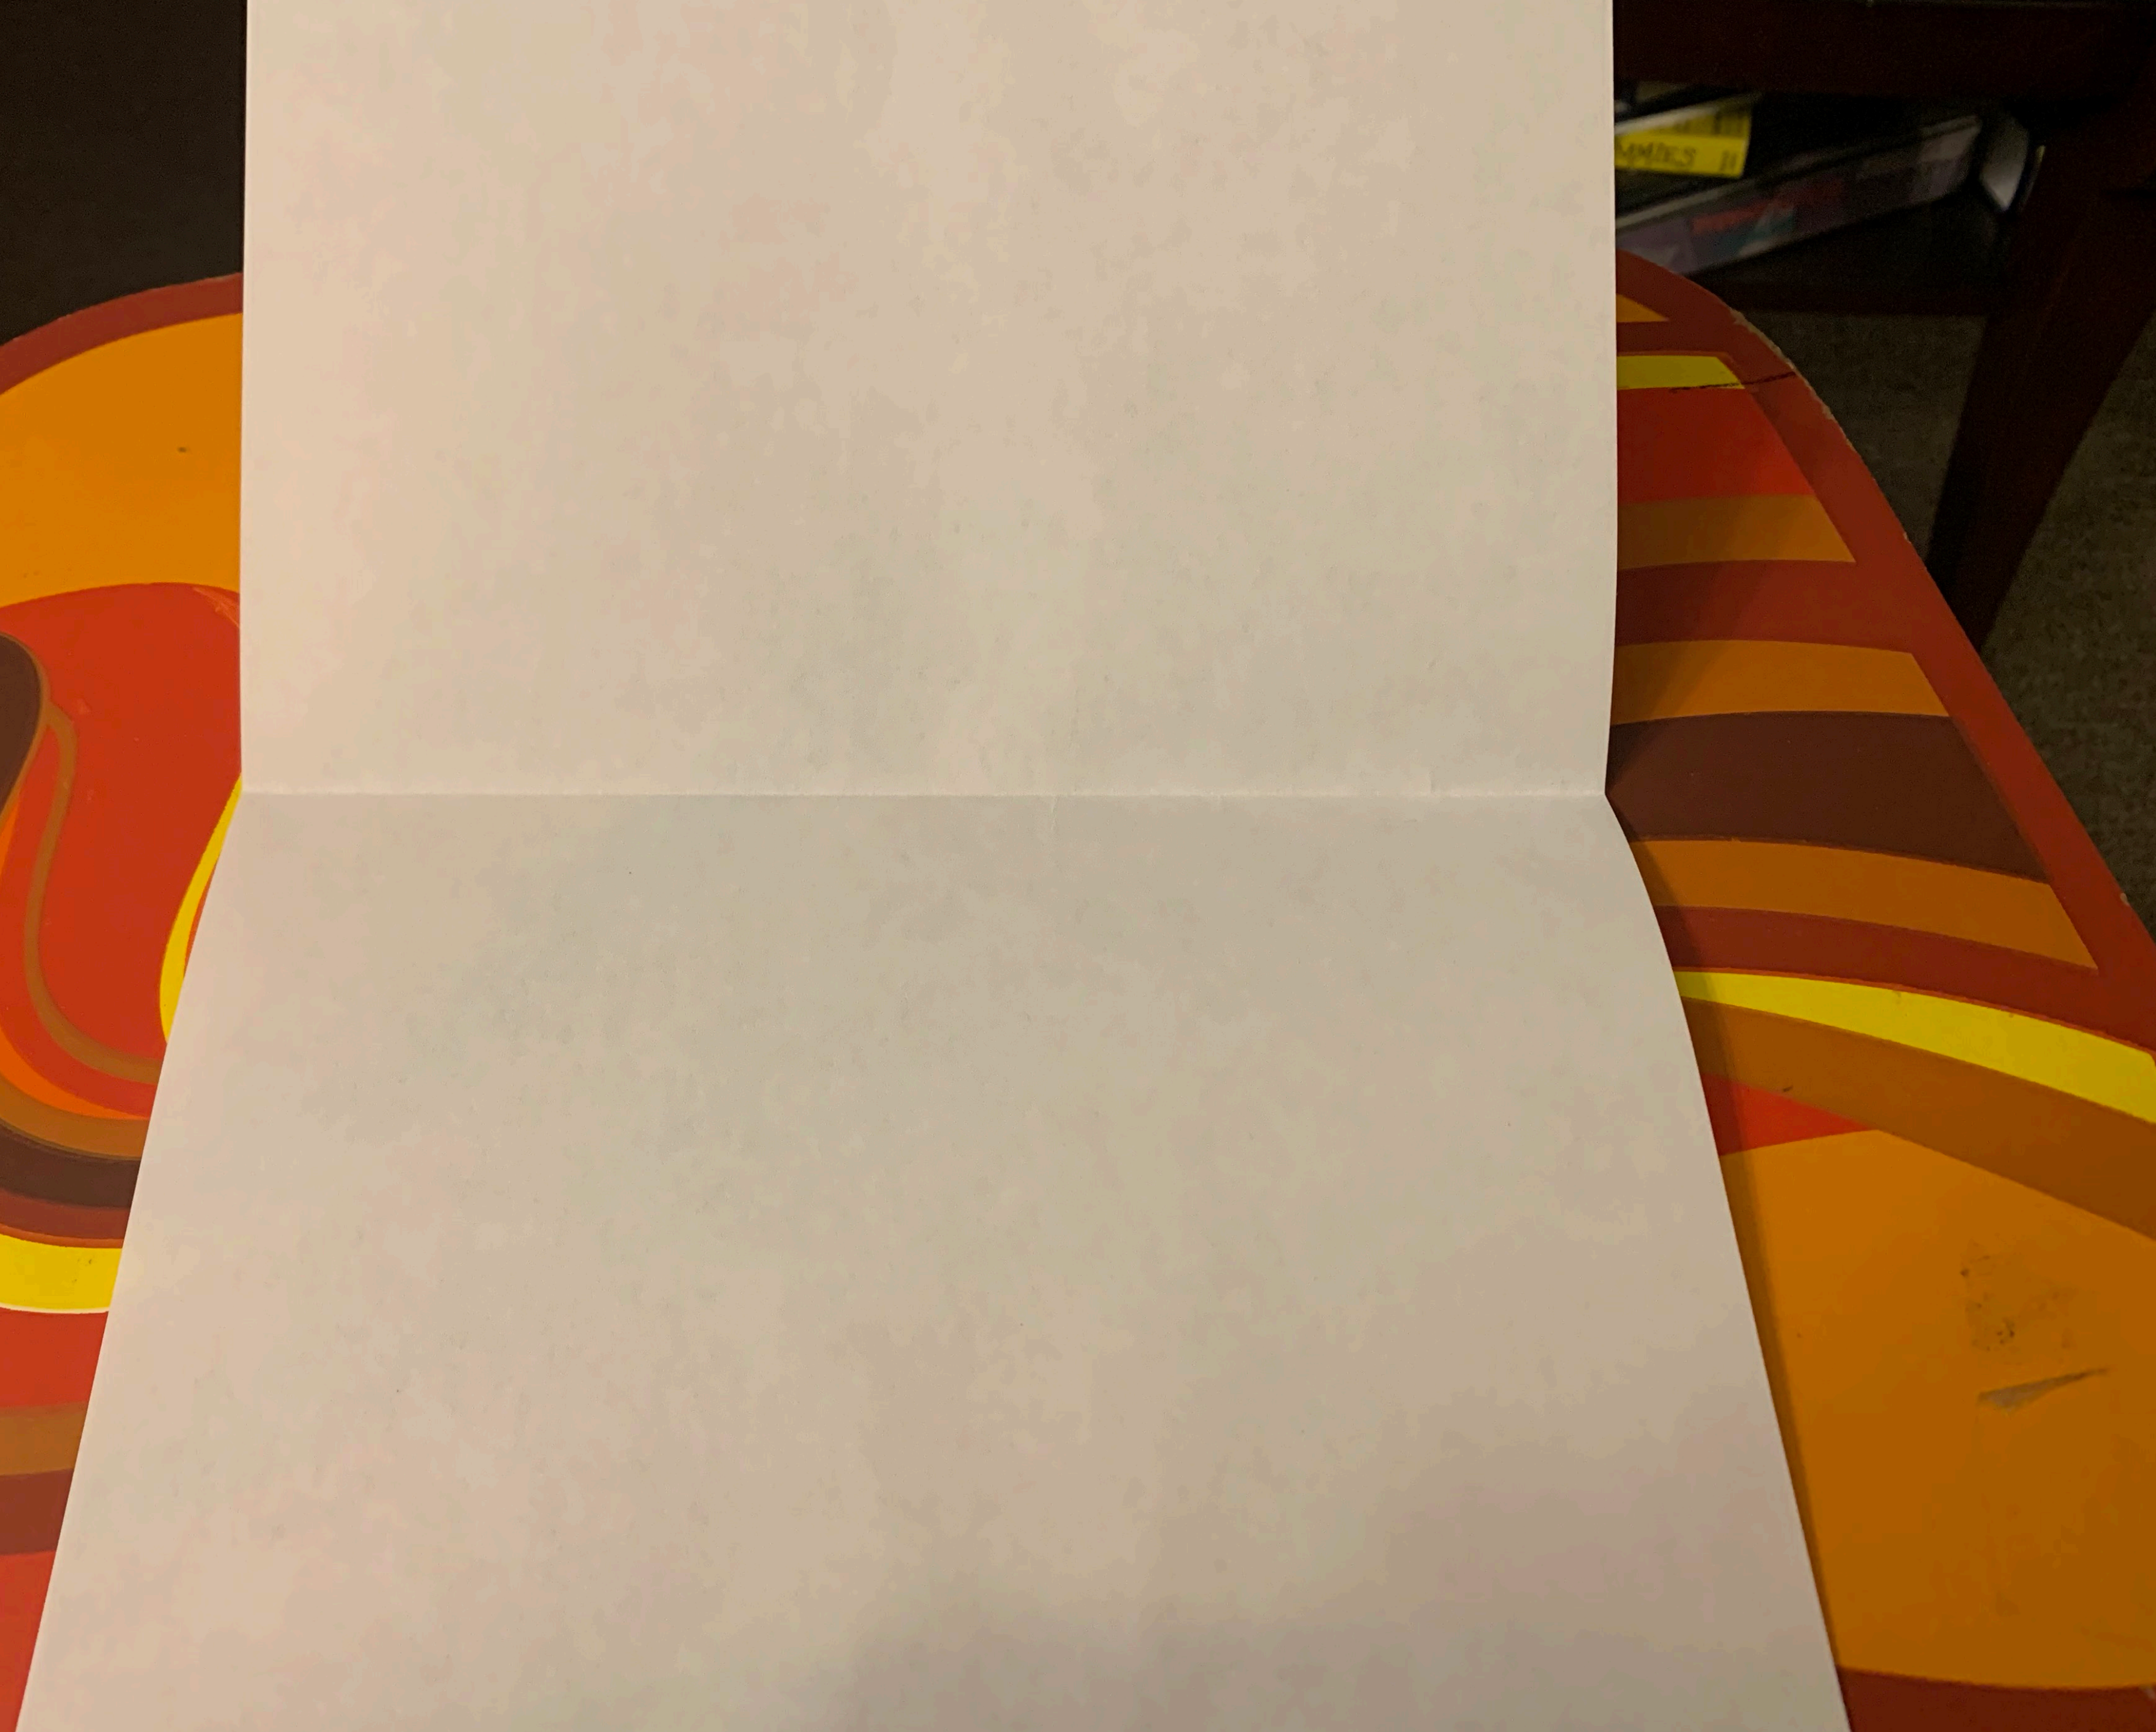

This chair instruction does not include the man. You can get four chairs from one piece of paper.

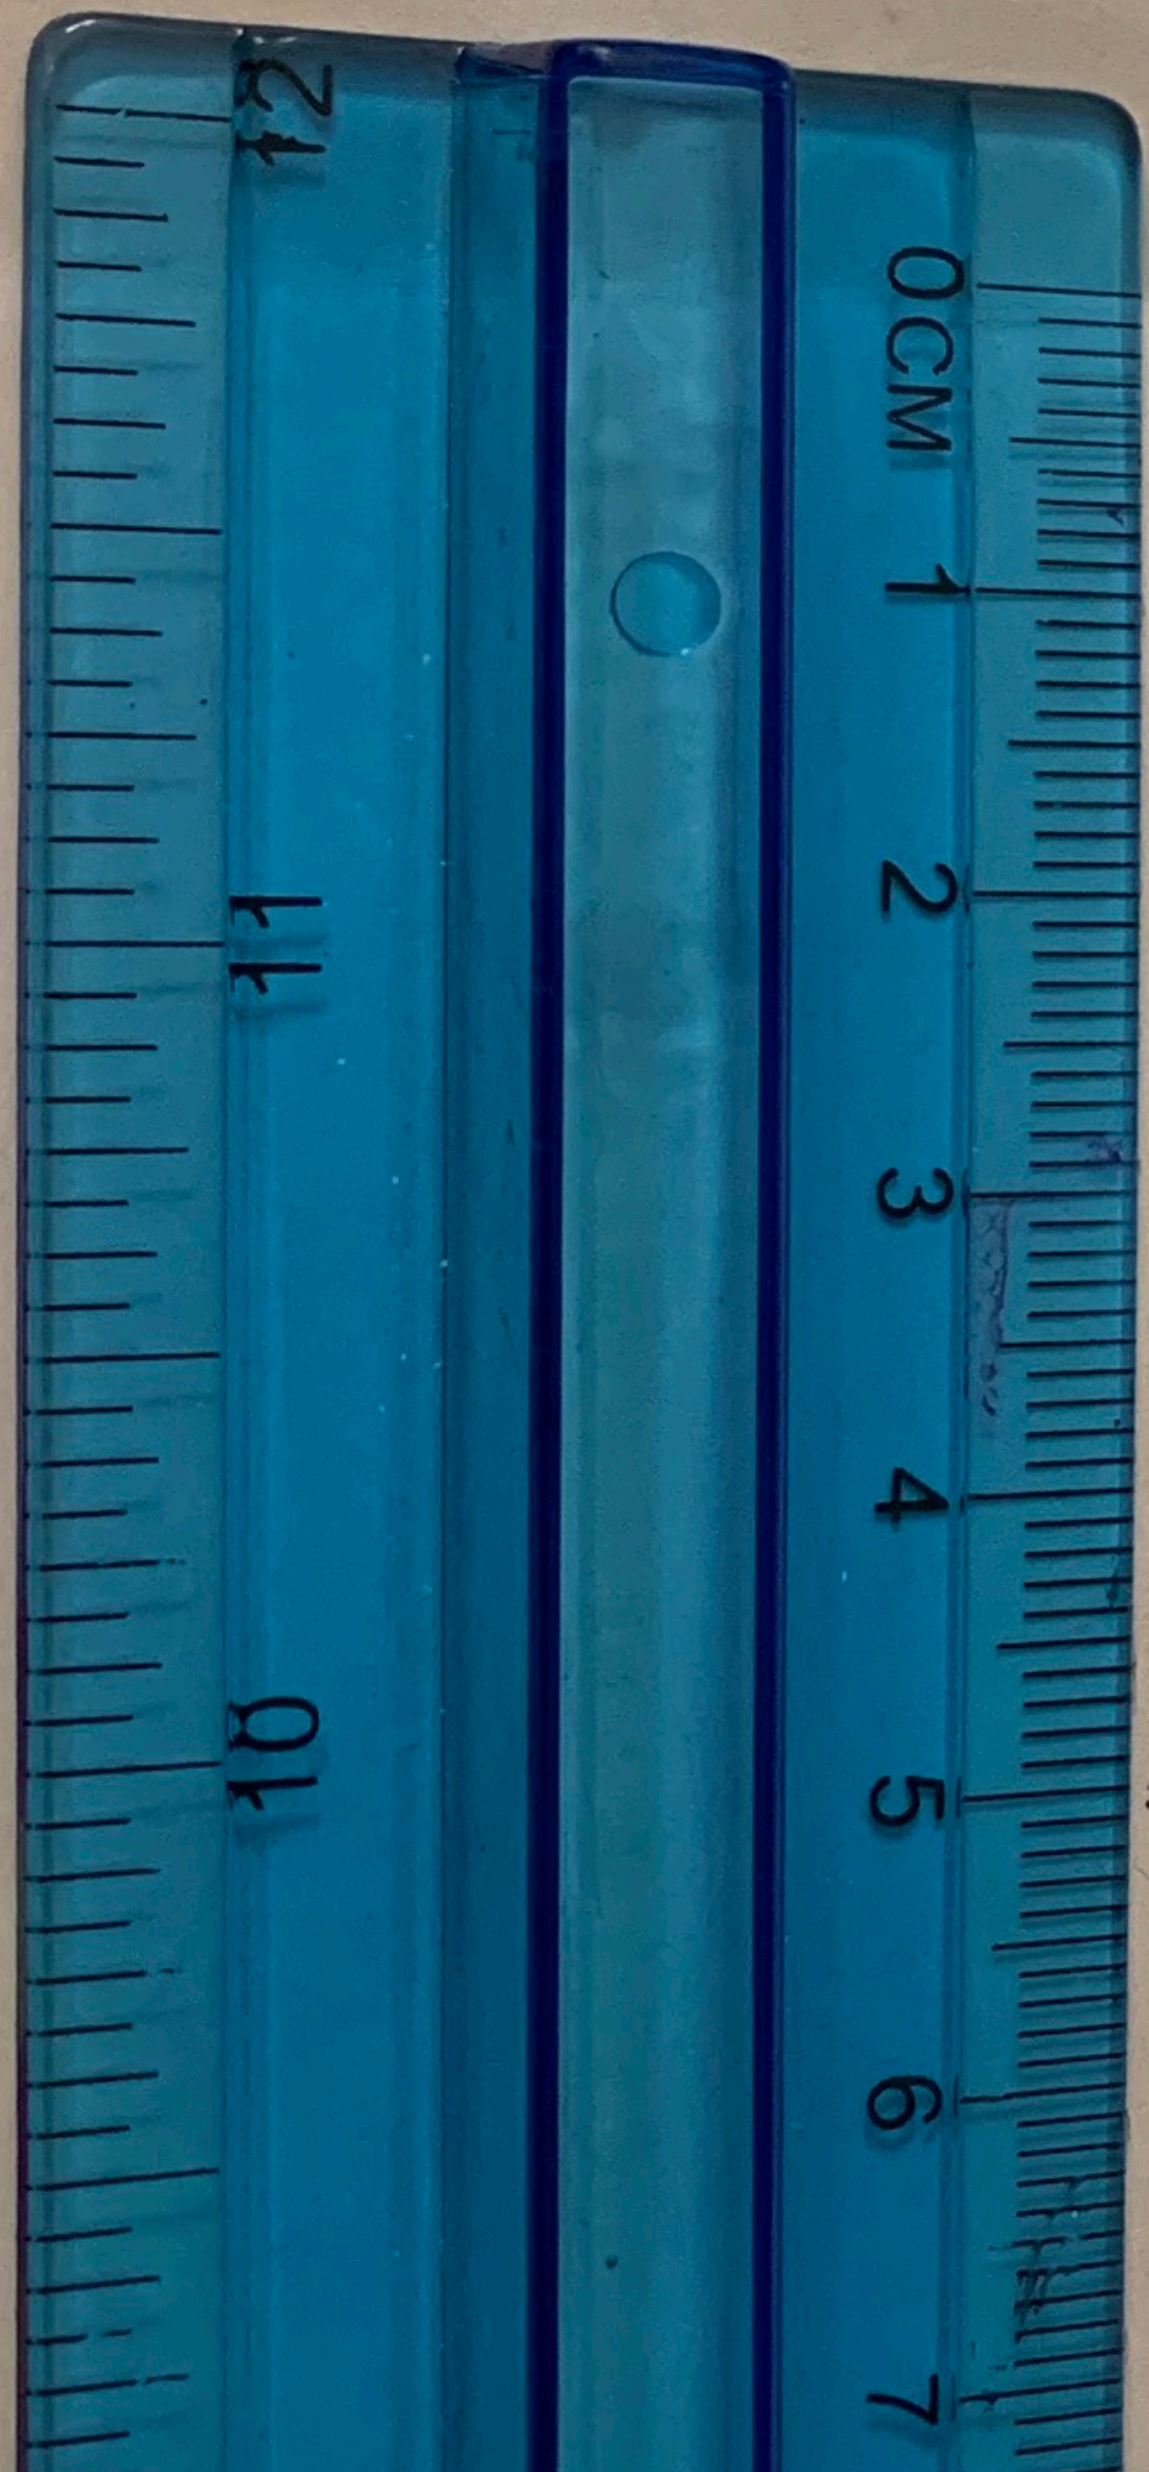

Materials:
Copy paper,
scissors, ruler,
tape, pencil.
Fold in half like a
card.

open it
up.

Measure and make
a mark at 5cm from
the fold line.

Make a mark at 5cm from end of page near other mark.

Fold forward like an
accordian.

A close-up photograph showing a person's hand pressing down on a piece of white paper. The paper is laid on a surface with a vibrant, abstract pattern of concentric, wavy lines in shades of orange, red, and yellow. The paper has some faint, handwritten markings, including the word 'Scm' and a vertical line. The text 'Press flat.' is overlaid in a large, bold, black serif font in the lower center of the image.

Press flat.

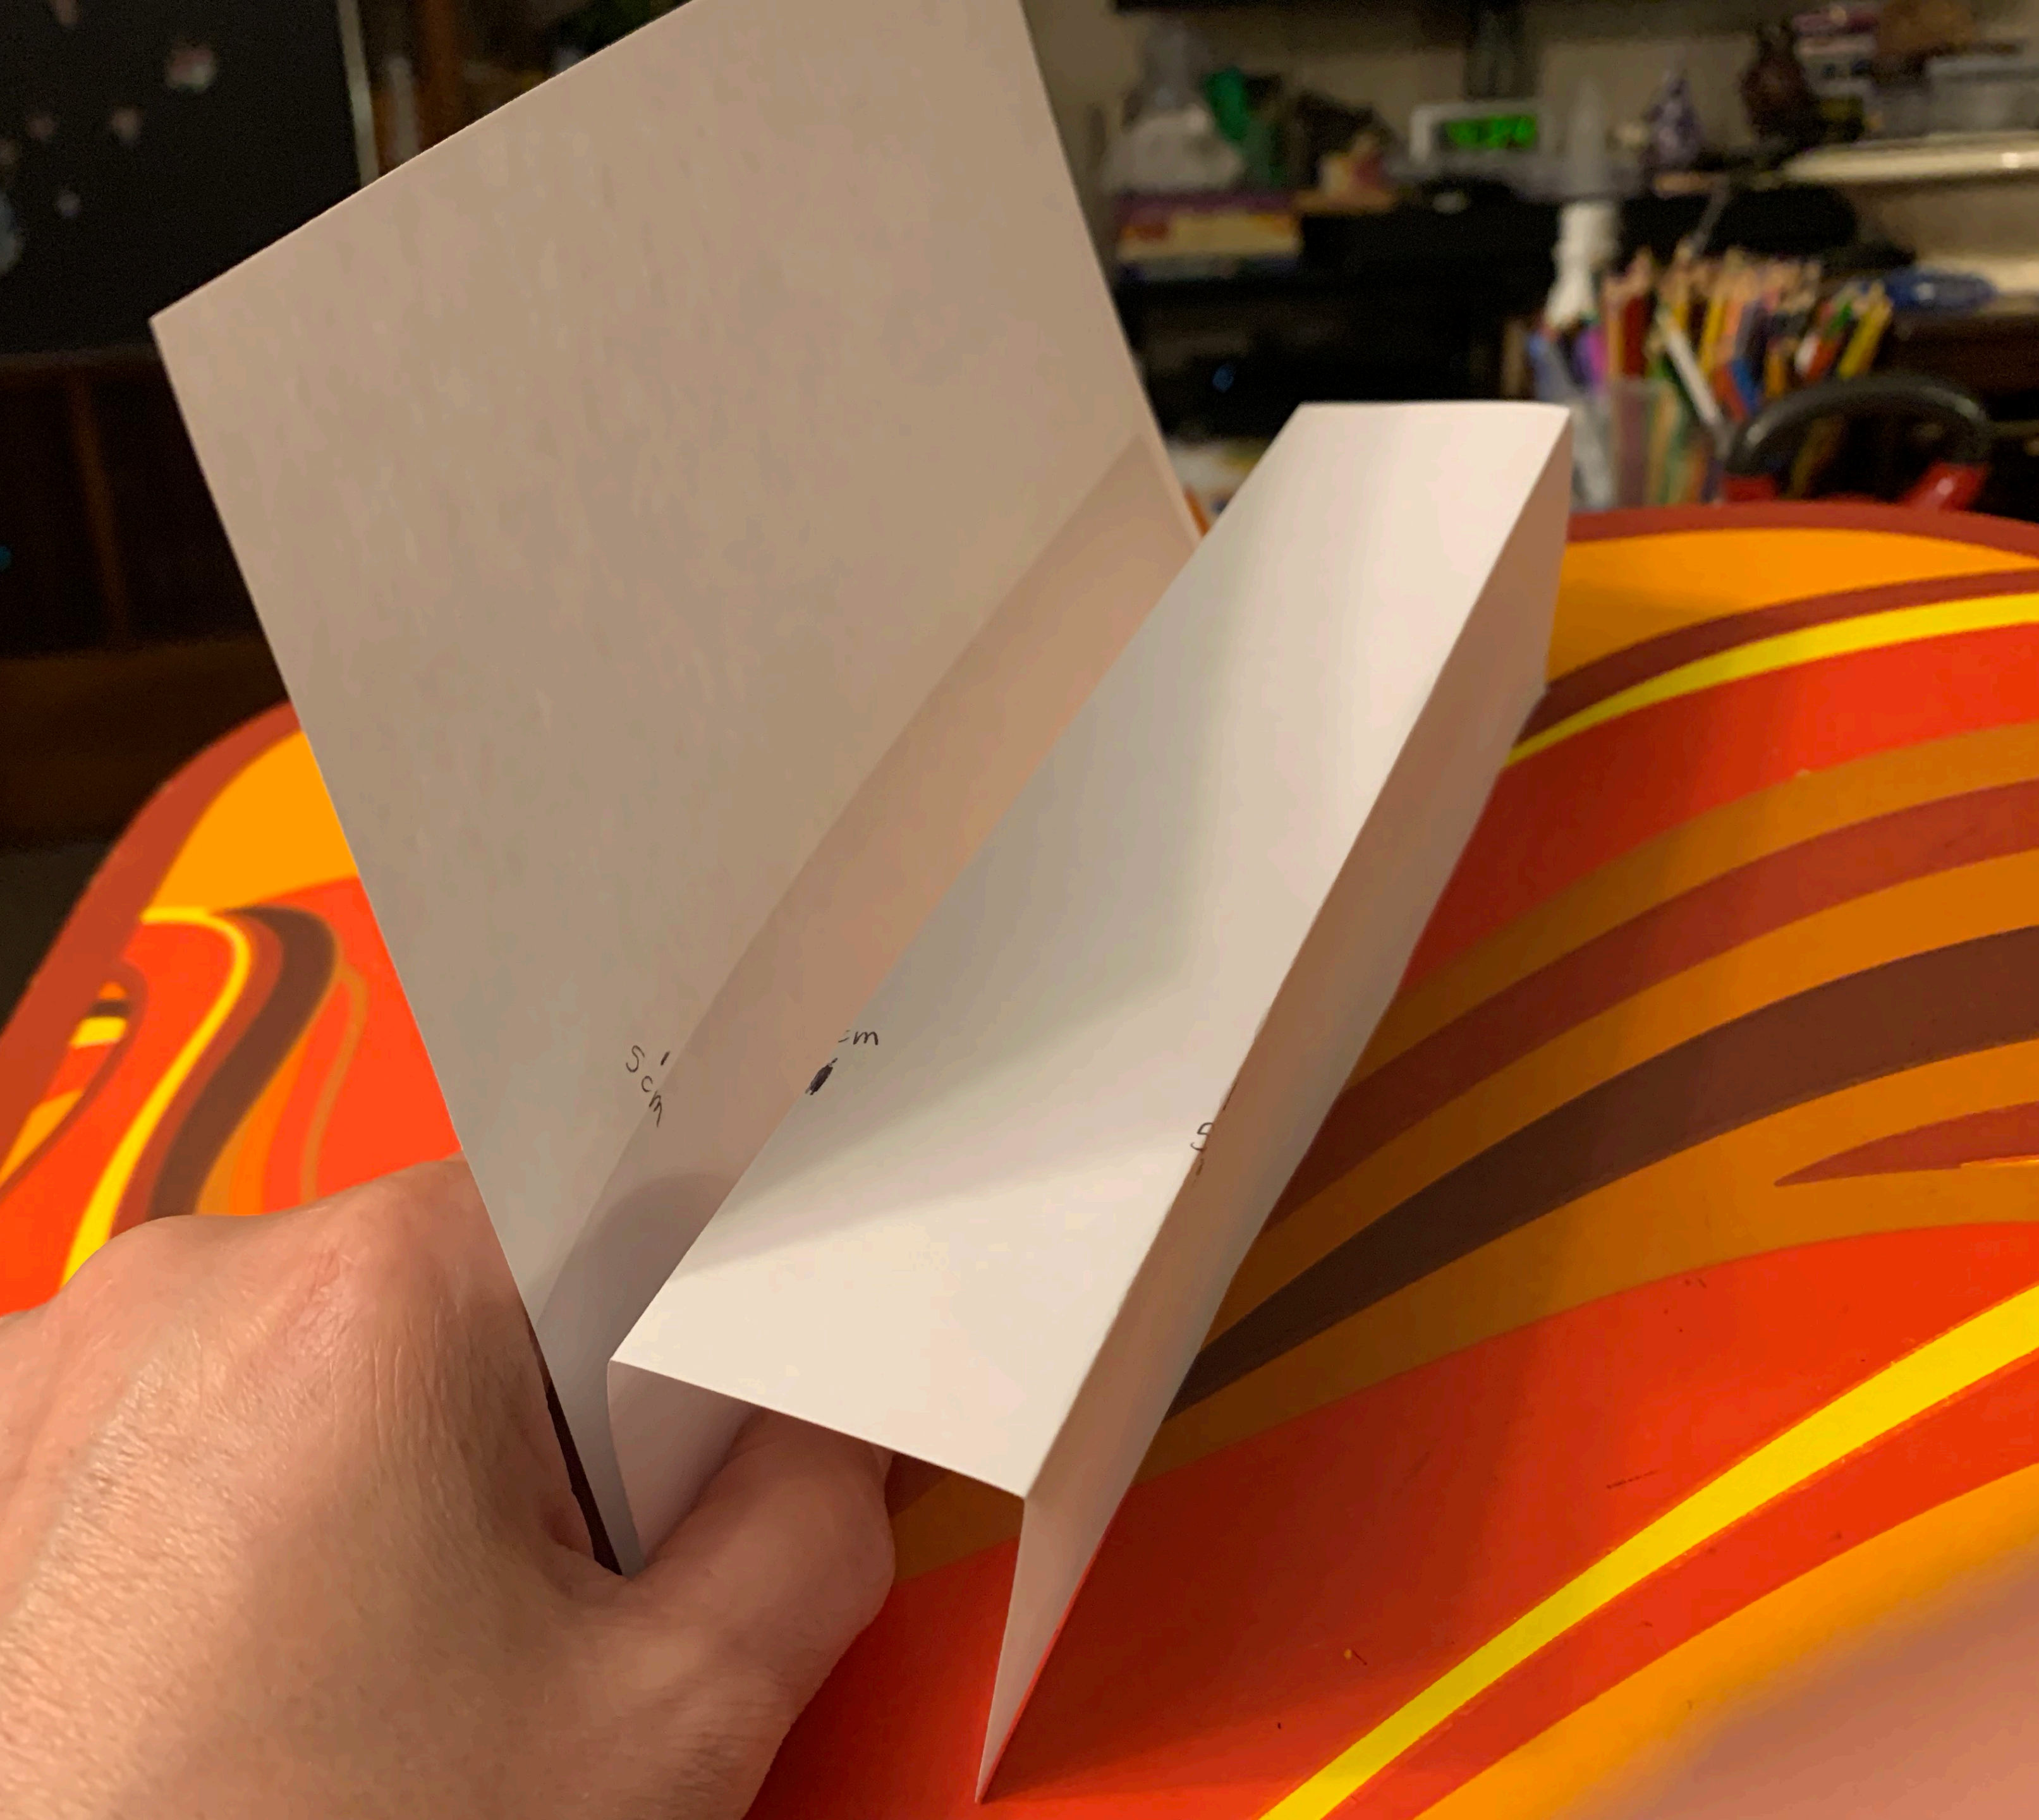

Fold back into a card.

A close-up photograph of a person's hand holding a white sheet of paper. The paper is partially folded, and the text is printed in a bold, black, serif font. The background is a colorful, striped pattern in shades of red, orange, and yellow.

Then fold front legs downwards towards the seat of chair.
Fold at the mark.

A close-up photograph of a person's hand holding a white sheet of paper. The paper is folded horizontally, and the text "Like this." is printed in a bold, black, serif font on the right side. The hand is positioned on the left side of the paper, with fingers spread. The background is a colorful, abstract pattern of orange, yellow, and red. The text "Like this." is the central focus of the image.

You should
have this.
The back
leg is
double ply.

Make a mark every 5cm for cutting it
into four chairs.

Draw a
cut line
every 5 cm
crossing
against
the folds.

Like this.

10cm

Cut one cut for now. Put aside large piece to make more chairs later, if desired.

This is what
you should
have.

Make a short snip
cut at bottom of
seat on back leg on both sides. This is a two-ply back leg.
Cut through both.

You can fold both
rear leg edges
backwards or
forwards.

Whatever you
think looks best.

Do the same for
the front legs.
Snip and fold
backwards.

cut an arched “door” shape in
the front and
back.

Round the top of
back of chair
with scissors.
Yaayyy! It's done!
You can make
three more if you
like.
